ABOUT ANCA

Australian National Capital Artists Inc. (ANCA) is an artist-run-initiative located in Canberra. ANCA's mission is to promote visual arts and cultural development through a dynamic sustainable organisation by providing access to affordable professional studio and exhibition space.

ANCA Gallery is supported by the ACT Government, and presents a quality and varied exhibition program that develops visual arts practice by supporting emerging and established artists in a range of media. ANCA Gallery is an ideal space to present solo or group exhibitions and invites applications from both artists and curators.

ANCA Gallery aims to:

- present a balanced program based on quality, variety and professionalism
- connect with local, regional and national communities
- support and promote visual arts and cultural development in Canberra

ANCA Gallery has a flexible, simple layout with easy ground access and overlooks a spacious courtyard garden. The gallery offers artists:

- 92m2 of floor space
- Wall heights ranging from four to seven metres
- Three additional movable walls
- Excellent natural light (plus roller shutters on the high windows for blocking out light when required)
- Generous ceiling height
- Polished concrete flooring
- Professional gallery track lighting
- Gas heating (for Canberra's cold winter months)

THE FINE PRINT

ANCA Gallery will:

- Provide curatorial support in the lead up to the exhibition
- Listings in Art Guide, Art Almanac and local press
- Promote the exhibition via online platforms, print and our network
- Prepare a media release for distribution to our media contacts and network
