ANCA Gallery is holding an open call for applications for PIN 9 from professional artists and designers working throughout Australia.

Since ANCA's inaugural PIN Show of 2011, the concept of reducing scale and honing in on a wearable miniature platform has appealed to many artists from a range of practices—including sculptors, printmakers, painters, ceramicists, silversmiths, machine-makers, photographers, woodworkers and glass artists. Following the success of the inaugural exhibition, ANCA held annual PIN exhibitions from 2011 to 2018.

After a break of five years the ANCA Gallery is again running this hugely popular exhibition in 2023. PIN 9 will be exhibited at ANCA Gallery from Wednesday 9 August to Saturday 19 August. The opening of PIN 9 will be held on Wednesday 9 August from 6pm to 8pm.

key dates

- applications due by midnight Sunday 23 April 2023
- applicants advised by midnight Sunday 30 April 2023
- artworks due by 5pm Tuesday 25 July 2023
- opening event 6–8pm Wednesday 9 August 2023
- exhibition dates Wednesday 9 August to Saturday 19 August 2023
- exhibition closes 5pm Saturday 19 August 2023
- unsold artwork to be collected by 4pm Sunday 27 August 2023

criteria

- All works must be miniature wearable artworks, fixed with a 'pin' or other suitable fixing and easily fastened to a wearer or display board.
- Works can be part of a set of wearable pieces, e.g. a brooch might 'break' apart into earrings, or be capable of being worn as a neckpiece, however it must be exhibited as a 'pin' object for the exhibition.
- PIN 9 is open to applications from Australian professional artists and designers working or in residence in Australia for the duration of PIN 9.
- To apply please complete this entry form by midnight Sunday 23 April 2023, along with the $45 non-refundable entry fee, your artist CV and up to 5 images of either finished work or work-in-progress (but no conceptual drawings or renderings). The entry fee of $45 is for up to five artwork submissions.

the fine print

- An image of one or several works for PIN 9 must be supplied—photographed against a white background, in high resolution and saved in JPEG format. File size 1 to 2.5MB, minimum 220dpi.
- An entry fee of $45 (for up to five works) is due by midnight Sunday 23 April 2023. The entry fee is non-refundable.
- Artists will be advised by email if their application is successful by midnight Sunday 30 April. PIN 9 is a curated exhibition and inclusion in the exhibition is dependent on the quality of the work submitted. Decisions are made by an ANCA Gallery Committee.
- All works included in the exhibition must be delivered to the ANCA Gallery by 5pm on Tuesday 25 July. It may not be possible to include works received after this date in the exhibition.

- All works are to be for sale. ANCA Gallery charges a 30% commission on all works sold during the exhibition period.
- Images of completed works may be used by ANCA to promote the exhibition online and in print media.
- A curatorial team will be curating and installing PIN 9, however the ANCA Gallery Manager will have final say as to what will be included in the exhibition and how it is installed in the exhibition.
- At the completion of the exhibition, if the work has not sold, it is the exhibitor's responsibility to arrange collection of the work from ANCA Gallery by 5pm Sunday 27 August. If an exhibitor requires unsold work to be posted to them, a prepaid & addressed postage pack must be included with the submitted work.
